Introduction

The Ministry of Women's Affairs' Women's Directory has proved a popular and useful resource for government agencies, voluntary organisations and individual women. I am pleased to introduce the 2001 edition.

The Ministry greatly values the liaison and consultation we have with women's organisations, and the input they have into our policy advice to Government. Organisations also play a valuable role in contributing to the reporting we undertake internationally.

The directory has three main sections: the listing of national women's organisations operating on a New Zealand-wide basis, Māori women's organisations, and regional organisations or branches. Information about government agencies is also included.

While we have tried to make this listing as comprehensive and up-to-date as possible, we realise that addresses and contacts do change, while new groups form and old ones reform. We welcome information about new addresses and new groups so that we can update the directory annually. Please use the form included at the back of this book for registration or email hodge@mwa.govt.nz with your details.

Copies of the directory are available from the Ministry and can also be accessed on the Ministry's website at www.mwa.govt.nz

Further information about local groups can be obtained from Citizens Advice Bureaux, libraries and Women's Centres.
